

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

OFFICE OF THE FAMILY LAW FACILITOR

FINISHING YOUR CASE

You started your case by filing your Petition. Now what?

There are two (2) basic steps to finish your case:

- Step 1: Have the other party properly served with the filed paperwork.
- Step 2: Obtain a Judgment, via agreement, default or trial.

You don't need to wait until your Self-Represented Family Case Resolution Conference (SFRC) to finalize your case. If you and the other party have a full agreement or if the other party does not file a Response (within 30 days of being served), the Family Law Facilitator's Office may be able to assist you. Assistance is available on a first come, first served, walk in basis or you can sign up online for the Finish My Case workshop at <https://iflow.sdcourt.ca.gov/>. You may also be eligible for the San Diego Superior Court's new program "One Day Divorce" if you and the other party agree to most of the issues in your case. Visit <http://www.sdcourt.ca.gov> to see if you qualify.
